MORE FEVER IN ST. STEPHEN'S HOME.

Assistant Sanitary Inspector McChesney spent several hours in St. Stophen's Home for Chitchen in East Twenty-eighth-st, yesterday to make sure that proper precautions were being taken against a further spread of typhus fever there. He found one ther spread of typhus fever there. He found one more child, Anne Lillias, suffering from the fever. She had been attacked during the meht, and bad been kent apart from the other children in the Home. Dr. McChesney sent her to the Riverside Hospital. He also learned that another little 2014, Alice Connor, had been removed from the institution to her parents' rooms at No. 329 East Thirty-sixth-st, and that she was believed to be all with typhoid fever. On going to the tenement-house where the Connors live the Inspector saw that the girl had typhus fever. By his directions she was removed as quickly as possible to the Riverside Hospital. The Sisters of charity in charge of St. Stephen's Home were instructed not to permit any more children to be taken away by relatives while the present danger continues. Such orders were said to be necessary to prevent a possible epidemic of typhus fever in the tenement-houses.

The published reports of the condition of St. Stephen's Home caused many parents to make inquiries for their children in the institution yester-day. Some of the par-nis wished to take their children away, but it was said at the Sanitary Bureau that quarantine rules would be adopted it necessary to keep the children in the institution. Morris the house and lot 26.4 feet by 100, on the east side of Fifth-ave., 53 feet nerth of Ninth-st. The consideration was $50,000; of this $10,000 was in cash, and for the remainder mortgages were given.

When the Bar Association erected its building on the north side of Twenty-ninth-st. it encreached from $4$ of an inch to $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches upon the land of the Reformed Church adjoining, which fronts on Fifth-ave. Yesterday an agreement was filed by which the Bar Association acknowledges the right of the church to remove the encreachment.

Two houses in East Twenty-eighth-st., adjoining St. Stephen's Church, and another in Twenty-ninth-st., together with some property at West Farms, have been conveyed by the Rey. Dr. Edward McGlynn to St. Stephen's Church for a meminal consideration. The Twenty-eighth-st. and Twenty-ninth-st. houses are the St. Stephen's Home, in which were the recent cases of typhus fever.

The Home of Industry and Refuge for Discharged Convicts has mortgaged the building which it occupies at the northwest corner of Houston and Mulberry sts. for $23,000.

The house at No. 211 East Filteenth-st, has been bought by Mrs. Clemence Delmonico.

THE PARK BOARD ORGANIZED AT LAST.

The Park Commissioners yesterday elected Mr. Othffe president of that body for six months, and Mr. Crimmins acting-treasurer until June 1. General Viele was not present. Mr. Crimmins was in the chair. After the transaction of some minor business Mr. Wales moved that Mr. Olliffe be chosen president of the Board for a term of six months. He recalled his efforts to organize the Board in the last two years, ane said that he now wished the matter settled. Mr. Crimmins wished a postponement until General Viele should be present. Mr. Wales said that the absent Commissioner had signed the call for the meeting and should be present. Amendments by Mr. Crimmins that the term should be three months and then four months were voted down, as was also Mr. Wales's resolution. This was again taken up, however, upon a declaration from Mr. Crimmins, that he would concede anything for the sake of the organization, and Mr. O.life was then elected president until November 1. Mr. Crimmins was chosen acting treasurer until June 1, declining a longer term.

A scheme for organization was presented by Mr. Crimmins; this provided for three committees, each consisting of a Commissioner and the president, who shall have charge of the various parks. The matter was laid over. Permission was civen the Chamber of Commerce to place the proposed statue of the late William E. Dodge in the small park at Broadway, Thirty-third-st. and Sixth-ave., facing the Union Dime Saviogs Bank.

ALMOST A PANIC IN A BROOKLYN SCHOOL. THE PARK BOARD ORGANIZED AT LAST.

ALMOST A PANIC IN A BROOKLYN SCHOOL.

A pable was narrowly escaped yesterday in Public School No. 28, at Herkimer-st. and Kalph-ave., Brooklyn. The principal, Miss Ella Folger, smelled smoke faintly about 11 o'clock, as she sat at her desk. She went into the ball to investigate, when ehe met the janitress, who said excitedly that there was a fire in the basement. Warning her not to alarm the children, Miss Folger returned to her desk, quietly dismissed the pupils and sent a boy to give an alarm of fire. The 800 scholars passed out in good order and without any fright. Before a policemea whom the boy met could get to the school-house the janitress had put out the flames with a pail of water. About one-half of the scholars had returned to the building when an indiscreet person called out. Fire! Fire!" in a lond voice. In alarm the boys and girls in the building rushed to the doors and windows, but the teachers succeeded in restraining them from a panic and all passed safely out. After the noon recess school was resumed. The fire was caused by a workman, who held a keroscne lamp too close to some woodwork. ALMOST A PANIC IN A BROOKLYN SCHOOL.

THE RAMSDEN ABANDONMENT CASE.

THE RAMSDEN ABANDONMENT CASE.

The witnesses in the Ramsden abandonment case met in the Harlem Police Court yesterday afternoon and signed their testimony, with the exception of Mr. Ramsden and Drs. Tauszky and Strew. In reference to the torn letter written in German and English which the defence say was formed of portions of two letters, what purported to be a true copy of the English letter was admitted in evidence. Half of it corresponded with the English half of the letter, while the remainder was not conched in endearing terms. Mr. Ramsden stated that since 1864 he had kept copies of all letters to the complainant, and that to the best of his knowledge he had never made use of two languages in the same letter. Mrs. Ramsden exhibited considerable excitement during the signing of the testimony, and Justice Herrman was several times obliged to restrain her. The case will be summed up on Wednesday in the Yorkville Police Court.

THE WHELAN HOMICIDE.

Coroner Merkle vesterday held an inquest in the case of Henry Whelan, bar-tender at No. 241 Bowery, who was shot in the neck by Charles Parks on the night of February 9. He died in St. Vinceat's Hospital on April 9. The evidence showed that a quarrel took place in the hallway adjoining the liquor store, in which both Whe'an and Parks took part, that Parks was cut on the head with a bottle, and that he followed Whelan into thel quor store after he had returned there, and shot him while he was standing behind the bar, after pulling the trigger of his revolver two or three times in ineffectual attempts to discharge it. Parks admitted having shot Whelan, but asserted that he acted in self-defence. Parks was committed to the Tombs without bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. He is twenty-four years old, and is an iron moulder by trade.

A DISAGREEMENT IN THE CASEY TRIAL. A DISAGREEMENT IN THE CASEY TRIAL.

The jury in the trial of Patrick Casey for the murder of Sergeant Comesky went into court in Long Island City vesterday morning, having been out all night, and reported that they were unable to agree. One of the jurors, Benjamin West, of Oyster Bay, was attacked with pleurisy early in the morning and medical aid had to be summoned. Judge Barnard, in view of the illness of one of their number, discharged the jury and ordered a special panel of 150 jurors to be summoned for May 21, when the prisoner will be retried. It is understood that the jury stood eleven for conviction of murder in the first degree.

JAMES J. MARTIN HELD FOR MURDER.

An inquest was held yesterday in the case of Peter Retell, who was shot and killed early on Sunday morning outside the liquor store No. 1,311 Third-ave. The jury found that Retell met his death from a pistot-shot wound in the head, and that the pistot was fired by James J. Martin. Martin was committed to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury. Francis J. Martin, his brother, was admitted to bail in $2,000 to appear as a witness. Thomas Smith, of No. 1,628 Lexington-ave., became his bondsman.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE SLATER FUND. BUSPICIOUS DEATH OF A YOUNG WOMAN. There is much excitement at Baldwin's, Long Island, over the death of Mrs. Sidney Smith, age eighteen, living at Freeport, who, it is alleged, died from the effects of malpractice. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Smith went to the house of Margaret Carman, at Milburn, and at 10 o'clock that night word was sent to Mrs. Smith's parents that she was dead. Coroner Cronin was informed and will make a searching investigation.

VIOLATING THE LAWS ON SUNDAY.

Mrs. Mary Meyer, who was charged with violating the Sunday laws, was acquitted yesterday in the Court of General Sessions. The agent of the Sunday Closing Society, who was the complainant, testified to the sale of candy by Mrs. Meyer on Sunday, December 24, 1882. The counsel for the defendant argued that there was no evidence that the candy sold was not a package of cough drops or some other medicinal candy. Judge Gildersleeve instructed the jury that if they believed the candy was sold as a medicine they might acquit, and a verdict of not guilty was found. Assistant District-Attorney Fellows said that there were a number of similar cases, and that he was informed that laws had been passed modifying the sections of the Penal Code. Judge Gildersleeve ordered the bail to be discharged in these cases and the indictments to be piecon-holed.

THE TROUBLES OF TOM LEE.

THE TROUBLES OF TOM LEE.

The Grand Jury has investigated the charges made against four Lee, the Chinese ex-deputy short?. Several of his countrymen gave evidence in reference to the complaints made against him of extorting money on a promise to secure for gambling-houses protection from the attacks of the police. An indictment was ordered, but it has not yet been drawn up, as there is some doubt as to the section under which it can be made. The Grand Jury has adjourned till Monday and probably no further action will be taken until then.

under which it can be made. The Grand Jury has adjourned till Monday and probably no further action will be taken until then.

To a Tribune reporter yesterday Tom Lee sa'd: "I have never taken a cent from a keeper of a gambling den. The charge that I have done so is talse, and it arises from j-alousy, because I have mere money than some of my neighbors. The means I have were obtained from the eigar, restaurant and insurance businesses in which I have been engaged. Money may have been paid to the police by some of the Chinese gamblers; out it is not being done now, for there is not a grabbing-house left in Mott-st. It is not true that I was kicked out of the office of Deputy Sherift. I resigned the office because it caused my countrymen to hate and ridicule me. I am not frightened by the threats of the Ha Fing Wing faction to do me injury, but I hope they will give me a chance to show my innocence in court."

A visit to the office of The Chinese-American was then made. Editor Wong was still of the opinion that there would be trouble on Mott-st, unless fom Lee paid to the ita Ting Wing faction some of the money that he is supposed to have taken from them.

A DEVICE TO SECURE WORK.

Last Saturday a fair-faced young man applied to Jacob Erhard, a truck farmer in Hamburgh-place. Newark, for work as a farm hand. He was engaged and went to work. On Thesday Erhard, who had noticed something peculiar in the actions of tace new hand, and suspected something was wrong with him, informed the Chief of Police of his suspicions. A police officer who speaks German was sent to the farm yesterday, and to him the strange hand confessed that he, or rather sile, was a woman. She farm yesterday, and to him the strange hand con-fessed that he, or rather sile, was a woman. She-had given the name of Martin, and she said her Christian name was Marv. She explained that she came to this country five months ago, and got work as a domestic with a Newark family until she was taken sick. Afterward she could get no situation, and having been accustomed to farm work in the old country, she conceived the idea of dressing in male attirs and soliciting work on a farm. She bought a cheap suit in Canal-st. Newark and cut her hair off. Mr. Ethard provided her with clothes suited to her sex and gave her work about his house.
